

Double chance

STEVE Hill, scorer of two goals on his debut against Marlow on Tuesday, is hoping to play against the club he left last week when Wycombe Wanderers visit Woking tomorrow (Saturday) in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

Wanderers' manager Ted Powell signed Hill on Tuesday and the former Slough forward will play if his registration comes through in time. It seems likely he will team up with Ian Pearson and Howard Kettleborough in the front line.

Keith Mead hopes to be fit after missing Tuesday's game with a groin strain. Woking should have new signing Steve Cosham up front — he joined recently from Sutton — while Wanderers meet up with former team-mates Dave Alexander and Derek Cotterill. Victory would give the Blues a double over Woking after their 1-0 home victory in November.
